Thai for Foreigners

Aligned with the Thai for Foreigners framework developed at Chulalongkorn University (CTFL)

A structured, university-aligned approach to learning Thai for adult foreign learners.

This programme is designed for adult foreigners who want to develop Thai through a clear, professional framework. Learning is structured, progressive, and focused on real-world communication rather than informal conversation or phrase-based study.

Teaching is aligned with the Thai for Foreigners framework developed at Chulalongkorn University. Carefully selected materials are used to support spoken Thai, listening accuracy, pronunciation, and sentence structure, ensuring learners build Thai in the correct order and with long-term retention.

Lessons are delivered using structured course materials, guided practice, and targeted exercises. Homework is assigned after each session, written feedback is provided, and lesson content is shared for review so progress continues between classes.

All lessons take place in a modern learning centre equipped with professional audio-visual technology. High-quality listening resources and visual support are used to refine pronunciation, tone awareness, and comprehension in a focused, adult learning environment.

What You'll Learn

Do you want to learn Thai through a proven university framework?

This programme follows a structured Thai-as-a-Foreign-Language approach developed at university level, designed for adult learners who want measurable results.

What is Thai for Foreigners?

Thai for Foreigners is a university-developed program for non-Thai adults that teaches spoken Thai, pronunciation, tones, and sentence patterns in a clear, step-by-step progression.

Who is this course for?

- Adult foreigners serious about learning Thai
- Learners who want structure, not casual conversation
- Professionals and long-term residents
- Families and individuals seeking real progress

A university-aligned framework

Teaching follows the Thai for Foreigners framework from Chulalongkorn University (CTFL), introducing language in the correct sequence and reinforcing it for accurate, confident use.

How the programme delivers results

Lessons are carefully planned using structured materials, guided practice, and targeted exercises, with homework, written feedback, and lesson summaries provided after every class.

Learn in a professional learning environment

Study in a quiet, purpose-built learning centre with professional audio-visual tools, using listening resources and visual support to refine pronunciation, tone awareness, and comprehension.
